

Calling All History Detectives!

Click here for the George Müller story

We've uncovered some great photos of George Müller's orphans in our dusty old archive.

Can you help us to hunt for clues in each photo to find out more about what life was like for these orphans?

Take a good, long look at today's photo...and see what clues you can come up with...

If you want to, you can send us your evidence by emailing: museum@mullers.org or post to: The George Müller Museum, 45-47 Loft House, College Road, Bristol UK BS7 9FG

What are your first impressions? Write down any words that come to mind.

What is happening in the photograph?

What objects can you see in the photograph?

Are there any captions? Dates? Locations? Names of people?

Any clues in the clothing or buildings?

Any lettering on signs or buildings?

Where was the photograph taken? You could do a bit of research on our Kids Extra page to see if you can guess the specific location: mullers.org/extra

What do you think is the relationship between any of the people in the photograph?

Why do you think this photograph was taken?

Why not have a look for an old photo at home - perhaps one of an older relative when they were young - you could look for clues using the questions above and then check for answers with an adult at home. 😊
